SERVER TECHNOLOGY, INC.,
Plaintiff and Counterdefendant,
v.
AMERICAN POWER CONVERSION
CORPORATION,
Defendant and Counterclaimant

3:06-CV-00698-LRH-VPC

ORDER

Before the court is plaintiff and counter-defendant Server Technology, Inc.'s ("STI") motion for clarification on the court's order denying its motion to dismiss defendant and counter-claimant American Power Conversion Corp.'s ("APC") fifth counterclaim for false marking under 35 U.S.C. § 292 (Doc. #369<sup>1</sup>). Doc. #377.

I. Facts and Procedural History

Plaintiff and counter-defendant STI brought the underlying patent infringement action against defendant and counter-claimant APC. In response, APC counterclaimed that STI falsely marked certain product literature as patented. Subsequently, STI filed a motion to dismiss APC's counterclaim for false marking. Doc. #340.

On July 26, 2012, the court denied STI's motion to dismiss finding that APC had sufficiently

1 alleged false marking. See Doc. #369. Thereafter, STI filed the present motion for clarification of the 2 court's order. Doc. #377.

3 II. Discussion

4 In its motion for clarification, STI requests further clarification on whether or not the court would
5 rule separately on its "in the alternative" argument for summary judgment. See Doc. #377.

6 The court now takes this opportunity to clarify its prior order. At no time did the court consider,
7 and it will not consider, STI's prior motion as one for summary judgment. Discovery on the issue of false
8 marking is currently underway and expert depositions and reports have not been completed. It would be
9 inappropriate to rule on summary judgment on the limited record at this time. Therefore, the court shall 10 not issue a separate order at this time.

11 That being said, however, the court is not precluding separately filed summary judgment motions
12 by either party after the close of discovery. Accordingly, the court shall grant both parties leave to file a
13 motion for summary judgment on APC's false marking counterclaim within thirty (30) days after the close
14 of extended discovery.

15
16 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that STI's motion for clarification (Doc. #377) is CLARIFIED
17 in accordance with this order.

18 IT IS SO ORDERED.

19 DATED this 16th day of October, 2012.
